SECTION I: - CORPORATE OVERVIEW

Dedicated to customer focused world class consultative services in financial management, management consulting, program support, and information technology to federal agencies, state governments, and private enterprises. TPA has grown every year since its inception. Growth for us, however, is a cautious undertaking. Our first priority is to satisfy our customers, and assure the professional and financial well-being of our employees. At TPA management's goal is to act responsibly so we can deliver what we promise, take care of our people, and contribute to our community.

Our work is based on our uncompromising commitment to our client and our people

We form a single team with our client's staff from start to successful project completion

We believe in making it easy for our clients to manage us so the team can be focused on results

We believe that rigorous processes executed by quality people produce quality results - continuously

We believe all of the above will result in an unblemished history of complete client satisfaction

Our mission is to achieve leadership positions in these disciplines by serving the needs of our customers in innovative ways and by being the best in everything we do. In our 24-year history, we have provided support services to a number of diverse federal agencies and commercial firms. In our engagements with these customers, we make a commitment to:

- ✚ conform to the specifications of the contract and adhere to contract schedules and price
- ✚ provide the services in accordance with commercial best practices
- ✚ focus on delivering value to our customers
- ✚ ensure customer satisfaction
- ✚ resolve issues immediately and effectively

Our commitment to these performance standards has resulted in a 100% success rate in meeting contract specifications, adhering to contract schedules, and meeting customer satisfaction benchmarks. We are proud of this impeccable record and our ability to avoid delinquency in any performance element of the contracts we have been awarded.

TPA is committed to consolidated service solutions that emphasize high quality, innovative services, solution solving, and pro-active customer service:

Quality - At TPA quality is everyone's job because we know it is the key to customer satisfaction. TPA employs a disciplined process driven approach to project management to assure efficient, consistent high quality results for our customers.

Experience - We have the expertise that will integrate the right solutions to meet the needs of your programs.

Skilled Professionals - We continuously recruit against future requirements to assure we can respond rapidly to changing customer needs.

REPeValuator™: Award-Winning Web Assessment Tool. REPeValuator measures and assesses the customer service skills of e-rep hires. REPeValuator can generate useful reports for assessment, selection, and training and performance measurement of entire e-rep workforces. When going through a REPeValuator assessment, candidates assume the role of customer contact representative during various browser-based chat conversations with simulated (based on a recording) customers in situations such as product/service inquiry, technical support, account inquiry, order status and service termination. Simulated customers imitate real customers, thereby creating an array of sales and service exchanges. Candidates are immediately rated upon completion of each skill assessment and his or her rating is then delivered via web to the supervisor.

TELeValuator™: A ready-to-use assessment tool that provides a valid, economical, and reliable method to assess customer contact skills remotely through realistic job simulations modeled directly for specific organizations. Experienced assessment professionals role- play with candidates and systematically measure the skills critical for success in telephone sales and service positions. Clients use these programs to enhance hiring success rates, reduce costly turnover, provide training and certify the competency of the existing staff. TELeValuator is also a diagnostic tool for employee training needs. Competency profiles are a quick way to objectively assess your current workforce strengths and weaknesses as well as to certify that recent hires meet training standards.

TPA assists customers with ensuring that they identify and develop supporting documentation for their authorized and funded functions. TPA applies its knowledge of and experience with best practices and performance-based approaches to advise and assist customers on optimal structures. TPA assists customers with workload analyses and realignment of resources to the organization's highest priorities.

B. RECRUITMENT AND INTERNAL PLACEMENT:

TPA conducts a broad range of support to customers' new hire and merit-based internal placement requirements. This may extend to planning, coordinating, and recruiting using printed and electronic media to reach prospective job applicants at trade schools, job fairs, and colleges and universities with a focus on facilitating a diverse, qualified applicant base; managing comprehensive internal recruitment, placement, and career development programs, which may include merit promotion, transfer of function (TOF), reassignment, temporary promotion, detail, realignment, change to lower grade, upward mobility, rotational training assignments, reductions in force (RIF), secondment, and limited non-career appointment; analyzing qualifications; managing special recruitment programs such as Senior Executive Service (SES), Outstanding Scholar, Veteran's Readjustment, Disabled, and Student Aid programs; using assessment centers for selection purposes; preparing job vacancy announcements; and providing employment information, as appropriate, regarding employment opportunities with the Federal Government in general and with agency-supported activities specifically. Our staffing advice to current customers has enabled them to use unique appointing authorities and facilitate the conversion of positions between personnel and pay systems to accomplish mission priorities. Because of our understanding of Federal HR legislation, rules, regulations, policies, and guides as well as our insistence on ensuring the viability of our recommendations with Agency decision makers, customers who have had uncommon success in winning approval of staffing requests that reflect our advice seek our services.

C. PRE-EMPLOYMENT SCREENING:

TPA provides extensive support to customers' requirements for ensuring that essential pre-employment clearances are obtained, including those for security, medical and special skill certifications. TPA will apply extensive expertise to assist customers in ensuring that job applicants' qualifications map to positions' requirements. This pre-employment screening support may include providing, submitting, or tracking the status of background investigations (background checks) of potential or existing employees in accordance with applicable Federal, state, and local regulations. TPA may verify employment data with previous employers, validate salary histories, coordinate criminal records checks, perform education verification, advise line managers on or directly perform reference checks, conduct professional license verification, ensure residence verification, perform family and neighbor verifications, and check credit history. All investigative activities are conducted in compliance with the Fair Credit Reporting Act, as amended. Satisfied customers have used TPA's services with major programs and projects including intake for specialties within the U.S. Foreign Service.

D. POSITION CLASSIFICATION:

TPA is sought after for its exceptional expertise in Federal Civil Service and Foreign Service position classification. This expertise enables customers to create and update descriptions of positions with the correct titles, occupational series or skill codes and grade levels to support new and evolving staffing requirements. Examples of classification support include, but are not limited to: writing authorizing regulations; developing accurate, adequate position descriptions for new organizations and those with changed authorities; reviewing current or proposed position descriptions for adequacy; implementing classification standards; preparing evaluation statements; conducting audits; counseling employees who wish to submit classification appeals; providing advice on position management, organization structure, supervisor and worker ratio, and impact of mission and workload changes; and assisting managers and supervisors to ensure adequacy and accuracy in the preparation of position descriptions. TPA has performed organizational analysis and position description services to enable customers to stand up new organizations, realign resources within existing ones and meet new U.S. Government legal, program and policy priorities.

E. TRAINING:

TPA is experienced in providing training for the roll-out of new and enhanced human resource management automation tools. TPA combines its subject matter expertise in human resource management and information technology to bring best value to customers' training requirements. Examples of training support include, but are not limited to, rendering advice, guidance, and assistance to supervisors and employees as well as HR and personnel staff to manage self-improvement training resources; providing assistance in identifying discrete individual and unit training needs and requirements; coordinating the availability of various training programs, developmental career programs, executive leadership programs, and tuition assistance programs; encouraging participation and accountability from management and employees in the training program(s); counseling management and employees to determine the best and most cost-effective (scheduling, expenditure of time and funds, and payback periods) methods of meeting organizational and career developmental needs. TPA can also identify and recommend effective interactive, multimedia, and distance-learning techniques particularly for field units and deployed personnel.

F. EMPLOYEE RELATIONS

TPA provides technical support services covering a range of employee and labor relations services. The scope of employee relations support includes, but is not limited to, providing comprehensive support in disciplinary actions as they relate to complaints, grievances, and appeals; administering leave, recognition and awards, performance management and appraisal, insurance benefits, Thrift Savings Plan, and retirements; providing guidance and assistance in completing necessary processes and documentation; providing guidance and assistance to monitor and assess the value of or to operate complaint receipt systems, such as an agency complaint hotline; performing case management; reviewing proposed correspondence for regulatory compliance; and serving as an interface with legal staff, union representatives, Department of Labor (DOL), OPM, other appropriate outside agencies, and the appropriate internal agency activities, as required.

G. PERSONNEL ACTIONS AND PAYROLL:

TPA provides technical support services in processing a range of Federal personnel actions and in payroll processing. Examples of personnel actions and payroll support include, but are not limited to, processing Standard Form 50 and related forms and documents manually or electronically to effect the full range of personnel actions for Senior Executive Service (SES), General Schedule, Federal Wage System, and other employee pay systems; maintain online data in HR information systems (HRIS) and any automated personnel subsystems, including, if needed, electronic interface with finance and Office of Personnel Management (OPM) systems; providing advice and assistance on technical matters related to employee records; preparing reports; processing payroll; electronic processing of resumes; providing for custody and maintenance of Official Personnel Files (OPF); maintaining OPFs in a secured area, protected from unauthorized access in accordance with regulatory requirements; forwarding OPFs to National Records Center; providing required employment verification; performing time and attendance processing; supporting interfaces with National Finance Center (NFC); and assisting with other payroll-related processes.

H. REPORTING:

TPA utilizes its extensive knowledge of Federal Government laws and reporting requirements to assist federal agency managers in fulfilling the Agency's HR reporting requirements, including OPM and the President's Management Agenda (PMA) requirements. TPA researches changes in requirements and assists by providing advisory consulting services to better enable its customers to prepare and submit legally mandated and regulated human capital reports. Significantly, TPA uses its reach-back capability to apply knowledge gained from supporting other customers across the range of HR, information technology, and budget requirements, where the breadth and depth of TPA's expertise are exceptional.

SECTION V: LABOR CATEGORY DESCRIPTION

TPA recognizes that successful performance depends on having the right skills and experience. These skills and experience, in turn, are acquired through the proper mix of education and professional experience. Increasingly, we find that the skills needed to meet Task Order performance requirements, in order to address today's problems, and tomorrow's challenges require individuals with varying levels of education, specialized knowledge and experience. The correct combination of these three elements is often unique and dependent on the particular requirements associated with the work being performed. Therefore, TPA's Schedule utilizes equivalencies between experience and education that allows us to take the full measure of an individual's capabilities. The job descriptions defined in this section provide the general guidelines for each labor category; however reasonable consideration may be used for determining the optimal combination of experience and education for each task.

SERVICE CONTRACT ACT (SCA)

The SCA is applicable to this contract as it applies to the entire Human Resources Service Schedule and all services provided. While no specific labor categories have been identified as being subject to SCA due to exemptions for professional employees (FAR 22.1101, 22.1102 and 29 CFR 541.300), this contract still maintains the provisions and protections for SCA eligible categories. If and / or when the Contractor adds SCA labor categories / employees to the contract through the modification process, the Contractor must inform the Contracting Officer and establish a SCA matrix identifying the GSA labor category titles, the occupational code, SCA labor category titles and the applicable WD number. Failure to do so may result in cancellation of the contract.
